Learning Solutions for Enterprises

ISB Executive Education partners with organisations to design and deliver learning solutions that address specific challenges to meet strategic business objectives and distinct learning needs. Our programmes are based on a holistic, evolving understanding of an enterprise's context as well as participants' strengths and potential.

We offer programmes to meet the development needs of individuals and small teams, and custom solutions for cohorts from within the same organisation. All custom solutions can be delivered via various formats including live virtual, classroom or on-site, online or asynchronous, and elaborately blended formats that provide the learning experience best suited to your organisation. The curriculum across all formats is similar but tailored to achieve maximum impact from each delivery format.
